

Grand Opening!

Doors Open 12, noon

Proceeds will benefit local non profit group Art in Action Youth Leadership Program whose organization uplifts and transforms the lives of young artists impacted by violence and poverty.

Art in Action

Light organic hors d'oeuvres provided by Season to Taste

'Green' Bar Services provided by Elixir

Vendor tables and featured products, 12:00–5:00pm

Hosted by Artisana Premier Organics

Steez
Guayaki
Adina
Sambazon
Third Street Chai
Peerless Coffee
Dagoba Organic Chocolates
RSF Social Finance
Scientific Certification Services
Ella Baker Center
Inner City Advisors
Butte Creek Brewing
Organic Vintners
Linden Beer
Mateveza
Square One Organic Vodka
Qi Spirits
4 Copas organic tequila
Zenn electric car – on display outside

Guest Speakers and Musicians 12pm–On (MC Anna Hartman)

12:00–1:30pm: Maurice Charriere playing classical guitar
1:30–2:30pm: Diana Stork playing world music on Harp
2:35–2:40pm: Harlen Springer speaks
2:40–2:50pm: Jose Corona speaks about inner city Oakland and how NUMI is a part of Oakland's community

2:50–2:55pm Terry Banks speaks

2:55–3:05pm Jim Harris speaks about NUMI as a growing company and his involvement with the company and personal background

3:05–3:10pm Hammad Atassi speaks

3:10–3:20pm Martha Daetwyler from RSF speaks about RSF Social Finance and the partnership with NUMI

3:20–3:25pm Cindy Graffort speaks

3:25–3:35pm Linda Brown speaks about SCS's sustainable platform and partnership with NUMI

3:35–3:40pm Tom Chapman speaks

3:40–3:50pm George Vukasin speaks about running a family business in Oakland and partnering with NUMI

3:50–3:55pm Gayle Stansfield speaks

3:55–4:00pm Sandra Arnold speaks

4:00–4:10pm Alli Chagi-Starr speaks about Ella Baker Center, Art in Action and the partnership with NUMI

4:10–4:15pm Adam Barrett speaks

4:15–4:20pm Brian Durkee speaks

4:20–4:40pm James Norwood Pratt speaks about Tea and his view towards NUMI in the tea industry

4:40–5:10pm Drake Sadler talks about his journey with Tea and partnership with NUMI

6:00–6:45pm Arjuna plays music from the Eastern lands with throat singing, Tibetan horn and special guests

7:00–7:45pm Jeff Stott plays music from middle eastern lands accompanied by belly dancer and percussion

8:00–8:45pm Rhythm Village mixes up the sounds from West Africa with percussion, dance and vocals

9:00pm till the night ends DJ Dragonfly and DJ Jef Stott mix up the night with sounds from around the world to make your feet dance and your spirit groove!